

By receiving and signing this disclaimer, users of data provided by ATAR Active Pty Ltd ("the company") limit the company of all liability to the maximum extent under Australian and international law.

Specifically, it is acknowledged that:

1. Users of services provided by the company are responsible for the accuracy of the data that they submit. Failure to submit correct data makes the product inaccurate.
2. It is the responsibility of the user to evaluate the accuracy and validity of any information or files obtained from the company. The company, its officers, agents, employees and contractors shall have no liability for the accuracy of the information supplied by the company and cannot be held liable for any third-party claims or losses or any damages resulting from the provision of the information provided.
3. The company, its officers, agents, employees and contractors have no association with the Queensland Tertiary Admission Centre (QTAC), the organisation that performs official ATAR calculations.
4. Information provided or relayed by the company is general information and is not in the nature of advice. The meaning of the data must be interpreted by the school.
5. The company, its officers, agents, employees and contractors take no responsibility for the quality or content of files which are uploaded or downloaded. The company does not guarantee that files will be free of contaminating code such as viruses or trap doors, and is not responsible if these files are false, untrue or deceptive. The user is responsible for the security and protection of his or her own personal computer. The company takes no responsibility for any loss or damages caused either directly or indirectly to personal computers, laptops or any devices used to access provided information.
6. Some estimates are generated from past academic performance (of both students concerned and overall cohort results) and that past performance does not guarantee future performance.
7. Some means, standard deviations and other mathematical distributions have been estimated and may not represent those calculated by QTAC when final ATARs are determined.

I, _____ (full name) acting on behalf of
